Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to welcome everyone to Art Beyond Borders, presented by the International Museum of Twenty-first Century Arts in collaboration with the United States Permanent Mission to the United Nations.

This exciting exhibit brings together the works of people from around the globe in order to foster better cultural understanding and communication. More than 60 countries have been involved in Art Beyond Borders since its inception, and each has brought a rich cultural, political, or philosophical diversity to the exhibit. Here in New York, it will have displays at the United Nations, the Grand Central branch of the New York Public Library, and in several public schools.

On behalf of all New Yorkers, I commend everyone associated with Art Beyond Borders for their commitment to creating a more peaceful and harmonious world through art. Please accept my best wishes for a terrific showcase and much continued success.

Sincerely,
